HOME DEPARTMENT

Memorandum No.153559 Police I/53-2. dated 22nd September 1953.

Sub: Police - Constabulary - Grant of extra remuneration in lieu of weekly off duty.

Ref: From the Inspector General of Police, P.O.No.413/GP/53, dated 24th July 1953.

-000-

With reference to paragraph 4 of G.O.No.455, Home, dated 9th February 1953, the Inspector General of Police has asked for the instructions of the Government on the following points:-

(i) whether the Head constables and constables deputed for bandobust duty, who are fed at Government cost and who cannot be given the weekly off-duty in the public interest, can be granted the extra remuneration of Re.1/- per day; and

(ii) whether the Constables and Head constables can be granted Travelling allowance in addition to the extra remuneration of Re.1/- per day in lieu of day's off duty, when the duty on which they are posted on the off-duty day involves journeys.

Point (i) above: The Head constables and constables of the City, Town and Taluk Police deputed for bandobust duty and who are fed at Government cost should not be granted the extra remuneration of Re.1/- per day, when they are not given the weekly off-duty in the public interest.

Point (ii) above: The Head constables and constables of the City, Town and Taluk Police should be allowed Travelling Allowance admissible under the rules, in addition to the extra remuneration of Re.1/- per day, when the duty on which they are posted on the off-duty day involves journeys.

2. The Inspector General is informed that the eligibility of the Head constables and constables of the Armed Reserve to the concession granted in paragraph 4 of G.O. No.455, Home, dated 9th February 1953 is under examination separately.
